

2014 Annual Report

Southeastern Guide Dogs
GuideDogs.org

Dear Friend,

There's nothing like a tangible transformation to inspire us to learn, grow, and improve. When we see the impact we're making on our visually impaired students and dogs, it drives us to work harder and smarter on behalf of their future.

There's something joyful about holding a tiny puppy in all of its playful softness. But when you see that puppy grow up to be a magnificent guide dog, confident in harness, quick in stride, and loyal in bond and connection to its handler, well, that's nearly indescribable. It's a combination of sheer amazement and wonder at what humans and dogs can do when given their best opportunities. And watching our students transform into confident graduates, taking on their world with a whole new level of freedom—it's spectacular!

That's why it gives us such pleasure to report to you the transformations taking place at Southeastern Guide Dogs.

- We're transforming our puppies into the finest of guide dogs, and to keep our lines healthy and diverse, we're participating in an international breeding cooperative.
- We're transforming the lives of our students and graduates, and we're thrilled to report that our student and graduate satisfaction ratings remain consistently high.
- We're transforming our campus into the world-class facility our students deserve.
- And we're being transformed because of the selfless contributions from our incredible volunteers, puppy raisers, donors, members of our Heritage Society, Walkathon participants, Veterinary Partners, and our entire community of graduates, including veterans.

Take a look inside at our Annual Report, and discover how 2014 was another remarkable year in the lives of our puppies, our people, and our passion for extraordinary dogs, changing lives.

Warm regards,

Tim Griffy
Chairman of the Board

Titus Herman
Chief Executive Officer

Creating Better Guide Dogs

Our partners: Assistance Dogs International North America Breeding Cooperative – or ABC

What we share: Puppies, breeders, and cryopreserved reproductive samples

Where we share: Across the U.S. and as far away as Australia, with a variety of respected service dog schools

Why we share: Diversity in the lines, healthier dogs, best guide dogs ever

Transforming Lives

Numbers served in 2014: 500+ students and graduates

People served in 2014: Veterans, college students, retirees, employees, professionals, parents, athletes, adventurers, grandparents, gardeners, artists, musicians, techies, travelers. People like you and me.

Satisfying Our Students

Our grade: 99%

What we measured: Our student satisfaction rating

Why it matters: They deserve an unforgettable, exceptional 26-day experience

Result: They're extremely satisfied. And that's why we're here!

Walking the Dogs

Walkathons: Our family-friendly, dog-friendly, volunteer-driven, biggest fundraisers of the year

Where we walked in 2014: Bradenton, St. Petersburg, The Villages, Tampa, and Sarasota

Incredible results: 8,500 walkers, 2,000 dogs, $650,000 raised, and countless smiles, wags, and happy feet

What's next: Expanding to Fort Myers and Orlando in 2015

Sharing and Caring

Who cares and shares: Our volunteers

How much: In 2014, over 350 campus volunteers shared over 37,000 hours

Doing what: Caring for puppies, cleaning the kennels, hosting tours, walking dogs, answering phones, staffing events, and delivering friendliness

Best adjective: Incredible!

Shining in the Community

Award: Tampa Bay Business Journal's 2014 Nonprofit of the Year

Number of finalists: 42

Overall winner: Southeastern Guide Dogs

Results: Public recognition of our ongoing, personal commitment to excellence

Evaluating For Future Careers

Building Name: The Keith G. Hirst Canine Assessment Center

Nickname: “Freshman Dorm”

Purpose: A welcoming place to house dogs returning to our campus for training, while conducting formal assessment protocols for health, intelligence, temperament, and suitability for guide work

Grand Opening: May 10, 2014

Leader of the pack: Lead donor Keith G. Hirst, generous friend of Southeastern Guide Dogs

With help from lead donor and Sarasota resident Keith G. Hirst, we completed the construction of our new 6,600 square-foot, $1.5 million Keith G. Hirst Canine Assessment Center — our “freshman dorm” that welcomes dogs returning to campus from volunteer puppy raiser homes. After opening in May, this beautiful center elevates the level of care we provide to our “in-for-training” dogs, and facilitates our new, highly sophisticated temperament assessment protocols.

Building the Future

What’s planned next: The Barpal – Hirst Student Center, our most ambitious growth project in our 32-year history

How big: $8.5 million, 30,000 square feet of accessibility, purpose, and attention to detail

Who’s leading the way: Initiated by lead donors Margaret & Isaac Barpal, and Keith G. Hirst

Why build: To provide an amazing experience to an estimated 10,000 students over the next 40–50 years

How to get there: Propelled by gifts and commitments from our community of friends

What to watch: Our spring 2015 groundbreaking!

Redefining Puppy Love

Title: Volunteer Puppy Raisers

Mission: Provide our puppies the foundation to become superheroes

Job description: Love, care for, train, socialize, and return them to us for formal harness training

Favorite quote: “I love my puppy. But somebody else needs my puppy.”

Characteristics: Committed, devoted, wholehearted

Canine hero: Bentley

Career: Guide Dog

Human hero: Austin Marshall, college student

Results: Freedom, confidence, independence

Delivering Independence

Despite vision loss from colobama of the retina, Mississippi State University student Austin Marshall navigates his Starkeville, Mississippi campus with confidence, thanks to a superhero Labrador named Bentley.

On their way home from training at Southeastern Guide Dogs, the pair encountered a six-hour delay in the Atlanta airport, one of the busiest airports in the world. “He did really well,” Austin says. “His guide work was flawless in the airport.”

Back on campus, Bentley’s skills continue to impress Austin. “He shows his intelligent disobedience really, really well,” he says. Campus crosswalks are filled with cars who don’t stop for students, and one day when Austin heard no traffic, he ventured across. “I got in the middle and Bentley stopped me as a car blew through; it could have been a dangerous situation but he stopped.”

In addition to being a full-time college student, Austin is also a freelance broadcast technician for ESPN. “I fly a lot,” says Austin. “And now I have the freedom to get on the plane and walk around the airport alone.”

Serving Our Veterans

Canine hero: Lando

Career: Veteran Service Dog

Human hero: Patrick Marshall, active duty Marine Corps

Results: Unbeatable bond, easing the tension

With 23 years in the Marine Corps and still on active duty, Patrick Marshall has served in three different armored platforms in four combat tours in Iraq and the Persian Gulf.

He first made progress in therapy for Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) when a Southeastern Facility Therapy Dog named Olivia—and later June—began joining his sessions at a Camp Lejeune clinic in Jacksonville, North Carolina.

“Olivia settled me down,” Patrick says. “Her presence broke up my tension.” Now he’s met a playful black Labrador named Lando, and the pair has forged a serious bond.

When Patrick arrived on campus to train with his new Veteran Service Dog, he was hopeful about the future. “I stay in my house,” he said. “My family goes out without me. I’m hoping Lando will change that. I’m hoping beyond hope that Lando can give me that grounding I need to go out on my own.”

After graduation, Patrick, Lando, and his family moved to Fort Benning, Georgia, where Lando is making a difference. Lando is helping Patrick rejoin his family’s world, and they are noticing something different: Patrick is smiling again.

Treasurer’s Report

Consistently, Southeastern Guide Dogs reports annual results indicating exceptional performance at all levels of the operation.

As Treasurer, I am pleased to report that the fiscal year ending on June 30, 2014 reflected strong financial results as well, with total revenues and investment earnings of $10.9 million and total expenses of $7.5 million. Both revenues and expenses include $366,000 in in-kind media contributions that enabled our school to vigorously promote its mission and programs.

The overall financial position of the organization remained very strong. Total net assets of $24.9 million increased by $3.4 million over the prior year.

The achievements of this past year would not have been possible without the dedication of our remarkable donors, supporters and volunteers who have provided financial support as well as time and talent in the execution of our mission.

We welcome you to view our organization’s audited financial statements, which can be found on our website at guidedogs.org.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Richard Clune".

Richard Clune
Treasurer
